

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday November 3. to Saturday November 5. 1709.

At the Court at Windsor, October 30. 1709.

P R E S E N T,

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

UPON reading this Day at the Board a Presentment from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs to the Right Honourable the Lord High-Treasurer, dated the 15th of this Instant October; Her Majesty, with the Advice of Her Privy-Council, is thereupon pleased to Order, that no Ships from the Baltick, under Quarantain, shall be Discharged therefrom until the Master, or other Person taking Charge of the Ship, shall make Oath of the Health of the Ship before the Mayor or other Magistrate of the Place, as has been formerly used in like Cases. And it being set forth by the said Presentment, That a Man of War belonging to the City of Hamborough, now in the Hope, had sent some of his Men to a Fly-Boat which came lately from the East-Country, and that the Men were returned to the said Man of War, Her Majesty is thereupon further pleased to Order, that the said Man of War belonging to the City of Hamborough be under the Rules of the Quarantain for so long a time as she shall stay in the Hope, and that he be not permitted to Land any Men, or suffer any to come on Board during that time; and also whatever Ships hereafter shall receive any Men or Goods from on Board Ships or Vessels under a Quarantain, shall be compelled to do the like Quarantain; and the Right Honourable the Lord High-Treasurer, and the Right Honourable the Lord High-Admiral, are to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

John Povey.

At the Court at Windsor, October 30, 1709.

P R E S E N T,

The Queen's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

UPON reading this Day at the Board a Presentment from the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs to the Right Honourable the Lord High-Treasurer, dated the 27th of this Instant October, whereby it appears, that there is a Difference between the Officers of Her Majesty's Customs and the Mayor and Aldermen of Newcastle, about appointing a Place in that Port for the Performance of the Quarantain by Ships coming from the Baltick; It was thereupon ordered by Her Majesty in Council, That the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs appoint a fitting Place or Places for the performance of the Quarantain of Ships coming from the Baltick to Newcastle, and for airing their Goods. And Her Majesty is further pleased to Order, That where any Difference shall arise between the Officers of Her Majesty's Customs and the Chief Magistrates in any of the Out-Ports, touching the Places to be appointed for the performance of the Quarantain by Ships coming from the Baltick, or for airing their Goods, the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs appoint proper Places in such Out-Ports for the performance of the Quarantain by the said Ships coming from the Baltick, and for airing their Goods, according to the Directions of former Orders from this Board; and the Right Honourable the Lord High-Treasurer is to give the necessary Directions herein accordingly.

John Povey.

Kensington, November 3. The following Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin, was presented to her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Sunderland, Principal Secretary of State, in the Absence of his Excellency the Earl of Wharton, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Mayor, Sheriffs, Commons and Citizens of the City of Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

Since each Year brings new Glories to your Arms, and Providence continues to adorn your Reign with repeated Conquests, we think it our Duty, most Gracious Sovereign, to renew our Address, and with the highest Respect to congratulate your Majesty on the glorious Successes of this Campaign.

The taking the two important Fortresses of Tournay and Mons, and the Signal Defeat of the French Troops, notwithstanding the utmost Advantage of Ground and Intrenchments, under the Conduct of the two greatest Commanders of this, or former Ages, his Grace the Duke of Mariborough, and the Prince of Savoy, must convince your Enemies, that no Power can withstand the Arms of your Majesty and Allies, united for the Defence of the Liberties of Europe, and that nothing can prevent their own Ruin, but a speedy and lasting Peace.

We beg Leave to take this Opportunity of acknowledging the many Blessings we have enjoyed throughout the whole Course of your Majesty's most auspicious Reign, and especially the Regard you have been pleased to shew for this Kingdom, in committing our Safety and Interest to the Government of his Excellency the Earl of Wharton, a Person whose Eminent Capacities and Zeal for the Protestant Interest, render him a fit Representative of the greatest and best of Queens.

That your Majesty may soon find the happy Effects of that just and necessary War which is brought so near a Conclusion, and long wear with Lustre the Crown of these Kingdoms, is the hearty and unanimous Desire of your dutiful and loyal Citizens of Dublin. In Testimony whereof we have caused the common Seal of the said City to be hereunto affixed; dated at the Tholsel of Dublin the 24th of October, Ann. Dom. 1709.

The humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of the County of Denbigh, was presented to her Majesty by the Honourable Lieutenant-General Cholmondeley, in the Absence of the Earl of Cholmondeley, Lord-Lieutenant of North-Wales.

Which Addresses her Majesty received very graciously.

Hamburg, November 5. N. S. Letters from Stockholm say, that the Warlike Preparations were carried on with all possible Application and Success throughout the Swedish